About college – Govt. R.R.M. P.G. College Surajpur, an institution devoted to meet the needs of higher education in the Surajpur district has attained great heights in the past few years. Surajpur district was established in 2012. It is 40 km away from divisional headquarter Ambikapur. It is well connected by rail and road. The railway station is known as Surajpur Road. Railway route is AnuppurAmbikapur branch line. The college is situated in the tribal belt and majority of students come from tribal and other backward classes. The prime aim of the college is to propagate knowledge to the students in the socially and economically challenged area with the motto “Mother and Motherland are Superior to Heaven”. The number of students in higher education has been on a constant rise, therefore our responsibility has increased. The college was established in 1984. It has Post Graduation in 7 subjects with PGDCA & DCA affiliated to Sant Gahira Guru Vishwavidyalaya, Ambikapur (C.G.). The total strength of the students is around 1516. The college has distinguished faculty with its commitment to develop a fully equipped centre of learning. The college has established a strong infrastructure: building, library facilities, and a well-managed girls hostel. The green campus has facilitated a calm and peaceful atmosphere for the teaching and learning process. It is a renowned centre for higher learning in the Surajpur region and in the first Cycle of Accreditation Process (5 Nov 2016), with “B” Grade by the NAAC, first among all the colleges in the Surajpur district. The college is PG College since 2017. The Self Study Report (SSR) of Govt. R.R.M. P.G. College Surajpur has been prepared, keeping in view all the seven core values advocated by the NAAC. While preparing the report, care has been taken to reflect objectivity, self-
